Katrina Walker is a designer, educator and author known for her expertise in construction techniques, textiles, machine embroidery, and Modern American Pojagi piecework. Her work is regularly featured in many magazines. When not sharing the love of sewing, she is raising her own natural colored wool for her Spoiled Sheep yarn (spoiledsheep.com). You can find her online at www.katrinawalker.com

- Learn techniques for working silk and wool
- Katrina will share her secrets for making flattering clothing with quilting cottons
- Learn how gorgeous specialty seaming techniques can be used to create garments, home décor, and even artistic piecework
- This is a not-to-miss opportunity to learn from the host of Blueprint (Craftsy)'s popular class, Decorative Seams
